The cases of Sri R. Subba Rao Janab Mir Safdar Hussain, Janab Abu Baker, Sri George Matthan Sri R. Seshagiri Rao etc. are all instances in point and have arisen during the last three or four months. My dear Dasappa,

You may remember that last Wednesday when the question of forcing leave on Mr.Mir Safder Husain was mooted in the Council, I opposed the proposal stating that leave cannot be forced upon an unwilling officer. I mentioned the same thing to Sri Bahshyam too. At the end of the meeting, since the matter was shelved that day, I told you that the matter should be reconsidered and you promised that this would be done. I now understand that orders have been issued to Mr. Safder Husain to take leave. I strongly feel that the whole thing has been hustled through and I request that this may be taken up as the first subject on Wednesday when the Council meets and till then the order may be kept in abeyance.

"A Gazetted Officer must report his return to duty to Government.

14) Again Art. 138 reads as:

An Officer may not, without the permission of the authority which granted him leave, return to duty more than fourteen days before the end of leave of over four months' duration.

15) The corresponding articles in C.S.R. are as below:

223 (a)

An officer may not, without the permission of the authority which granted him leave, return to duty more than fourteen days before the end of Long Leave

226. An Officer is not entitled, at the end of Long Leave, to resume as a matter of course, without further orders, the particular appointment which he vacated before leave. He should report his return to duty as prescribed in Article 228 and await orders.

16) Art. 138 M.S.R. and Art. 223 C.S.R. extracted above openly preclude an officer from returning to duty more than 14 days before the end of leave of over 4 months duration. By implication, this means that Government do require sometime to effect the necessary adjustments before an officer returning from long leave could be taken back to duty. Art.140 M.S.R. corresponding to Art. 226 C.S.R., both extracted above, clearly show that the officer should report his return to duty after long leave, and "await orders". Although this particular

Article may refer to the question of the officer joining the same appointment as he left at the time of his going on leave, the broader object is embedded in the articles viz., that the Government should be given sometime before deciding upon the place to be given to the officer.

17) Then again, Article 122 (a) M.S.R. confers unfettered discretion on Government to refuse or revoke leave of absence of any description at any time, according to the exigencies of of public service. By inference, refusal and revocation, must be held as comprehending a requisition of an officer to extend his leave.

18) Thus, the rules as they stand give any amount of latitude to Government in matters regarding leave, and the sole determining factor is the "exigencies" of public service. There is little scope for any officer to question this discretion of Government by asking for any kind of leave, either by way of compensation or otherwise, merely because his posting was delayed for sometime.

19) As noted by the Confidential Branch, cases of this type have been there and are likely to arise in future also, and no rule to cover such cases is considered necessary in the light of the explanation given above. An equally senior Head of a Department, Sri K. Subba Rao is stated to have been asked to extend his leave, but he does not seem to have claimed any compensation for the leave which he did not require but which he took at the instance of Government. There is accordingly no need to devise any rule to cover cases of the kind, especially when a claim like this is seen to have come up for the first time.

20) Nevertheless, as noted by the Finance Department on occasions more than one in several other files, it is necessary not only in the interests of economy but also of efficiency and in the interests of the officers themselves that the postings should not be unduly delayed.
